

Confidentiality Policy and Pledge

Any information that a USA Climbing employee, director or member of a committee or task force (together, a "USAC Representative") learns about USA Climbing or its members that is not otherwise publicly available constitutes confidential information. USAC Representatives may not disclose any such confidential information to anyone who is not a USAC Representative except as necessary to perform his or her functions for USA Climbing and then only with reasonable expectation of non-disclosure by such third party.